Jimmy Carter: Champion for Human Rights

March 5, 2015 10:00am and 12:00pm CST

Presented by: Jimmy Carter National Historic Site

Students will explore how growing up in a small, rural, culturally diverse community in Southwest Georgia during the Great Depression helped shape the life, character, values and ultimately the political policies of Jimmy Carter, 39th President of the United States and Nobel Peace Prize winner.

President Carter has been an untiring champion of human rights, and through the use of photographs, oral history and documents in the museum's collection, students will draw conclusions of how they, too, can make a difference locally, nationally, and internationally.
